The Gift of the Magi

By O. Henry

Introduction

The Gift of the Magi is a short story by O. Henry, first published in 1906. The story takes place on Christmas Eve and revolves around a young couple, Jim and Della, who are struggling to make ends meet.

The Story

It was Christmas Eve, and Della had only $1.87 to buy a gift for her husband, Jim. She wanted to get him something special, but she didn't have enough money. Jim had been eyeing a gold watch chain, but Della knew she couldn't afford it.

Della had long, beautiful hair, which she had been growing for years. She decided to cut and sell her hair to buy a gold watch chain for Jim. Meanwhile, Jim had been struggling to make ends meet and had been selling his possessions to buy Christmas gifts for Della.

On Christmas Eve, Della presented Jim with the gold watch chain, and he was overjoyed. But when he went to wind his watch, he realized that he had sold his watch to buy Della a set of beautiful combs for her hair.

Della was heartbroken when she saw the combs, knowing that she had cut and sold her hair to buy the watch chain. But Jim was equally heartbroken, knowing that he had sold his watch to buy the combs.

Conclusion

The story of the Gift of the Magi is a heartwarming tale of love and sacrifice. Jim and Della had given up their most precious possessions to buy gifts for each other, not knowing that the other had done the same. The story teaches us that the true spirit of Christmas is not about material gifts, but about the love and sacrifice we show to those around us.
